

CEIAG - Useful Websites

Students

As well as using www.UNIFROG.com the following websites are just a small selection of useful sites:

<https://icould.com/> a good website to help you link your strengths at school with potential careers

<https://nationalcareers.service.gov.uk/explore-careers> - useful for researching a specific career

<https://guest.startprofile.com/> - useful for several careers

<https://successatschool.org/careerzones> - useful for several careers

<https://www.prospects.ac.uk/jobs-and-work-experience/job-sectors> - for graduate jobs in all sectors

<http://www.mathscareers.org.uk/career-profiles/> - career profiles with maths, science, engineering

<https://www.goconstruct.org/construction-jobs/career-explorer/> - careers in construction

<https://www.healthcareers.nhs.uk/explore-roles> - careers in healthcare

<https://www.ucas.com/> - The main website to explore University options

<https://barclayslifeskills.com/young-people/> Explore your strengths, skills and career options

Parents/Carers

We understand parents/carers can often find it daunting supporting their child with finding their future career. Whilst there are lots of websites out there to help your children make informed choices, these websites are specifically designed to help you support your children in their careers education.

<https://www.parentadviser.co.uk/advice-for-parents.aspx>

<https://www.parentalguidance.org.uk/>

<https://barclayslifeskills.com/families/>

<https://www.ucas.com/undergraduate/applying-university/ucas-undergraduate-advice-parents-and-guardians>